

UH Endowment for the Humanities
2016 Summer Research Award
Application Form

The College of Languages, Linguistics & Literature and the College of Arts & Humanities announce that funds are available from the UH Endowment for the Humanities to support summer research projects that fall within one of the humanities disciplines. Disciplines include: languages (both modern and classical); linguistics; literature; history; jurisprudence; philosophy; archaeology; comparative religion; ethics; and the history, criticism, and theory of the arts. Applicants are not required to be affiliated with the colleges where these disciplines are offered.

Terms of UH Endowment for the Humanities (UHEH) Award

- Limit of one application per year
- Funding covers only expenses associated with the actual research (e.g. travel to and from research site; materials, supplies)
- Maximum award is $4,000 (faculty member is strongly encouraged to apply to other funding sources, as well)
- Research must take place between May 1, 2016 and August 31, 2016
- Award recipients must submit via email a one-page report to their dean on the research outcome within 30 days of the research end date noted on application cover sheet (see next page)

Eligibility

- Full-time, tenure-track faculty (preference given to junior faculty)
- Faculty member must not be on leave during research period

How to Apply

Prepare an application packet comprised only of the following and in the order listed:

1. Completed 2016 Summer Research Application Cover Sheet (see next page)
2. Description of project (no more than three double-spaced pages in length)
3. Itemized budget
4. Brief travel itinerary (if applicable)
5. 1-2 page CV highlighting recent research and research related to proposed research
6. List of all research support during the last three calendar years (2013, 2014, 2015)
7. Letter of support from your department chair

Create a single pdf of the application packet and name it accordingly:

Lastname_UHEH2016.pdf

Submit the completed application packet by e-mail as a single pdf to Karin Mackenzie (karinm@hawaii.edu). (If you have questions, you can e-mail Karin or call 956-4051.)

Application deadline: Tuesday, March 1, 2016 (incomplete or late packets will not be considered).
